Dear Friend and Colleague:

I am happy to invite you to our statewide secondary school theatre festival and competition sponsored by the Speech and Theatre Association of New Jersey, in conjunction with the New Jersey's Annual Governor's Awards in Arts Education. This event will take place at the Montclair State University theatre facilities on Saturday, January 12th, 2019 from 8:00 AM to 6:00 PM. A snow date is scheduled for Sunday, January 13th.

We are also pleased to offer TWO Scholarships to deserving high school seniors who plan to major in theatre, speech, or communication in college.

The competition is significantly different from other events festivals and league tournaments planned throughout the state. This theatre experience celebrates healthy competition and acknowledges distinction through the selection of a first place winner who will receive the NJ Governor's Award in Arts Excellence. The competition is an invaluable learning experience.

Please note the NEW categories outlined in the accompanying materials, and consider bringing your students this year.

- » There is one preliminary round and one finals round.
- » Finalists are chosen by hired judges who have no affiliation with competing students.
- » Awards are given to the first 6 places unless noted in new rules.
- » Students and teachers are invited to observe all performances.
- » The entire STANJ Board oversees the event.

The NJ Governor's Award Competition For Theatre Arts

*A secondary school theatre competition in association with
The New Jersey Governor's Awards in Arts Education*

CONTEST STRUCTURE

There will be one preliminary round and one final round per category.
Finalists will be chosen from the results of the preliminary rounds.
The top two entrants from each room will progress to the final round.
All entrants will receive written critiques.
Three judges will be assigned to each finals category.
The Improvisation category will have all 5 judges present.
The finals' results will determine the first through sixth place award recipients.
All finalists will receive trophies.

FOR ALL CATEGORIES, EXCEPT IMPROV, MATERIAL MUST BE EXCERPTED FROM A SINGLE PLAY WHICH IS PROFESSIONALLY PUBLISHED EXPRESSLY FOR THE STAGE.

All students must bring a copy of the script indicating authorship and copyright for their entry. Failure to do so will result in disqualification.

IF YOU AGREE TO BRING YOUR STUDENTS, PLEASE BE AWARE WE DO NOT CENSOR MATERIAL.

A single contestant may not enter more than SIX categories, excluding Best Play, Best Musical, and Stage Manager.

COMEDIC & DRAMATIC MONOLOGUE

Schools may enter a maximum of 6 monologues in each category. Each contestant will present a cutting from any published play; it need not be a complete scene, but should function as a complete unit. The actor will be provided with an empty space and a single chair. The selection, with introduction, may not exceed FIVE minutes. No prompters may be used. A contestant may enter only one monologue in each category.

COMEDIC & DRAMATIC PAIRS

Schools may enter a maximum of 5 pairs in each category. Each should be a cutting from a published play. Actors may use props, costumes, makeup, or recorded music. The selection, with introduction, may not exceed TEN minutes, including setup and strike.

No prompters may be used. A contestant may enter one pair in each category.

IMPROVISATIONAL PAIRS

Schools may enter a maximum of five improvisational pairs.

Time: 5 minutes maximum

Procedure: The improvisational pair will first slate their full names, school number, and introduce themselves as an improvisational pair. Then, to prevent the performance of any pre-planned ideas or scripted sketches, the actors will select a slip of paper from one of the following categories to help initiate the improvised scene:

1. Relationship
2. Setting

OR

3. Theme/Main Idea (example: stage fright, first crush, Spring Break, etc.)

Once the actors have selected and read the suggestion, the actors will read the suggestion aloud, hand the slip of paper to the judge to confirm the suggestion and the timer will begin. Pairs will NOT be permitted to prep together before the scene. While the maximum time allowed will be five minutes, there is no minimum time requirement. Actors will be expected to create a scene that includes a beginning, middle and end - in other words, a story with a problem that gets resolved by its end. If the actors reach four minutes, they will be given a 1 minute warning in order to find an ending before time is up; they may, however, end the scene on their own at any point before the five minutes is up by pausing and saying "scene." The judge will stop the scene at the end of the five minutes. Scenes will not be permitted to continue after the five minute mark.

ALL preliminary judges will be present in the FINALS round. Therefore if any characters, setting, plots, or material of any kind is repeated from the 1st round, those students will be disqualified from receiving a trophy in the finals round. While STANJ recognizes that stock characters can be used in different forms of professional improvisation, all ideas must be created fresh and on the spot for the sake of this competition. *****

SCENES

Schools may enter a maximum of 2 scenes. Each scene will be a cutting from a single published play and must have at least 3 actors. The scene may not exceed FIFTEEN minutes, including introduction, setup and strike. A contestant may enter only one scene. The director MUST provide a CAST LIST with application.

SENIOR SCHOLARSHIP

1. The total sum of the scholarship will be determined each year.
2. Nominees must be graduating NJ high school seniors.
3. Nominees must be entered by a STANJ member in good standing.
4. The winner must be a declared theatre, speech or communication major.
5. Checks will be sent directly to the winner's college after the student declares his/her theatre-related major.
6. The competition will take place at the annual STANJ Governor's Awards Secondary School Theatre Competition at Montclair State University.
7. There will be only TWO scholarship recipients.
Runners up will qualify for the scholarship if the first-place winners decline the prize or changes their major upon registration at college.
8. Contestants will perform two (2) monologues of contrasting style and mood. This may be classic/contemporary or dramatic/comedic. The time limit for both monologues combined in total may not exceed four (4) minutes.
9. No costumes, props, or music are permitted.
10. The STANJ president or designee will present the scholarship recognition at the student's high school awards ceremony, if one is held.
11. The entry fee is $25.00 per nominee.
12. The maximum entry from each school is three (3) students.
13. Hired judges, unaffiliated with STANJ, will decide the recipient.
14. Applications must be postmarked by the deadline date issued each year.
15. Scholarship competitors will be notified of room location and time of presentation during registration on the morning of the competition.

CHARACTER ANALYSIS

MUST be WORD for WORD what is printed in packet; any added words will result in disqualification. Only ONE student per school can be selected for this category that focuses on the educational aspect of how to create a believable, multi-dimensional character. EVERY student in this category will PERFORM THE SAME MONOLOGUE. ONE trophy will be awarded to the student who created the best character based on individual choices he/she made in his/her performance. This category is NOT eligible for a Governor's Award. There is NO preliminary round for this category. Monologue materials can be found on the last page of this packet. This category does NOT count toward the four maximum categories students are allowed to participate in.

Contrasting Monologues

One (1) contemporary monologue from a play published after 1910 and one (1) classical monologue from a play published in 1910 or earlier will be performed.

Students participating in this category must display “range” by selecting 2 distinct characters that are dissimilar in nature.

Example: FALSTAFF is a classical choice and is a comedic character, who is a womanizer and gregarious, whereas, BIFF is a modern choice and is jaded, confused, and still trying to work through the issues with his father. FALSTAFF and BIFF are strong contrasts. HAMLET is a classical choice; however, he exhibits many of the same characteristics as BIFF and would constitute a weak contrast even though one character is classical and the other is contemporary. Other examples of strong contrasting characters are JULIA from Two Gentlemen from Verona and LAURA from The Glass Menagerie and MALVOLIO from Twelfth Night and JOHN PROCTOR from The Crucible.

Monologues are not to exceed 4 minutes. The introduction is not included in time.

Performers will slate, “I am [state your name, school number and letter]. My first selection is from [title of play] by [name of playwright] the role of [name of character]. My second selection is from [title of play] by [name of playwright] the role [name of character].”

IMPORTANT 2019 RULES & PROCEDURES

1). What is considered a published play that can be used in the competition?

A published play is a play for which performers would pay a royalty or performance fee to perform the play in its entirety, with the exception of plays which are in the public domain (i.e. Shakespeare, Moliere, Oscar Wilde, etc.). If there are any questions prior to the competition, please contact Lisa at poggistudios@gmail.com for approval.

If it is discovered that a student places in the finals with a piece that is NOT from a published play, the award will be rescinded and awarded to the next highest-ranked student.**

2). Trophies

All participants are strongly encouraged to remain until the end of the competition. This year in addition to an improvisational game workshops from judges will also be provided from 3:30-4:30pm.

If this cannot be arranged, and students from your school win a trophy, you need to:

- a. Coordinate with another school in your area to take your trophy (ies) home for you, or
- b. Schedule an appointment to meet with Lisa Poggi to pick-up your trophies at Clifton High School.

If neither of these options are arranged in advance, STANJ is not responsible for delivering the trophies to you and they will be left at Montclair State University.

3). NEW Improvisational Pairs Rules Reminder

Schools may enter a maximum of five improvisational pairs.

Time: 5 minutes maximum.

Procedure: The improvisational pair will first slate their full names, school number, and introduce themselves as an improvisational pair. Then, to prevent the performance of any pre-planned ideas or scripted sketches, the actors will select a slip of paper from one of the following categories to help initiate the improvised scene:

3. Relationship
4. Setting

OR

3. Theme/Main Idea (example: stage fright, first crush, spring break, etc.)

Once the actors have selected and read their suggestion, the actors will read the suggestion aloud, hand the slip of paper over to the judge to confirm the suggestion, and the timer will begin. Pairs will NOT be permitted to prep together before the scene. While the maximum time allowed will be five minutes, there is no minimum time requirement. Actors will be expected to create a scene that includes a beginning, middle and end - in other words, create a story with a problem that gets resolved by its end. If the actors reach four minutes, they will be given a 1 minute warning in order to find an ending before time is up; they may, however, end the scene on their own at any point before the five minutes is up by pausing and saying "scene". The judge will stop the scene at the end of the five minutes. Scenes will not be permitted to continue after the five minute mark.

Critiquers' Guidelines (this explains how your students are critiqued.)

1. This event is designed to promote excellence, commitment, and creativity in the performance of theater.
2. There is one preliminary round.
 - a. You will score the students in your section on a rubric. The rubric is used only as feedback for the students. No numbered scores will be on the rubric---only written feedback.
 - b. You will also rank them. The ranking is used for scoring. Your top two entries in each room, from each category, will be finalists. A sample scoring sheet is included in your packet.
3. There is one final round.
 - a. Three judges will be assigned to each final round category.
 - b. Scoring is the same as in the Preliminaries except now you will rank them 1 thru 6.
 - c. Finals' results will determine the 1st through 6th place awards recipients.
4. Time Limits
 - a. Time limits are strictly observed; please bring a stopwatch, a watch with second hand, or use the timer on your smartphone.
 - b. Introductions are for the purpose of assisting the judge in understanding the scene context. They are required but not considered part of the time allotted.
 - c. A 30 second grace period is allowed before moving the contestant to last place in that round, and if a piece exceeds its limit beyond one minute, it will be stopped. Stop the scene and do not engage in an argument regarding time limit with any performer. Do not comment on the time limit to the performer. NO oral feedback, of any kind, should be given.
5. Please do write comments.
 - a. Look for high standards, but be constructive and positive in all you say.
 - b. Your remarks will be read by the participants.
6. Do not critique orally. The schedule doesn't permit this, and your comments, however well intentioned, may be considered prejudicial or misleading.
7. YOU MUST RETURN YOUR SCORES AND RANKS TO THE SCORING ROOM IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE ROUND.

You may finish your write-ups there. Finishing your write ups in the performance room will hold up the scoring and run into your lunch time. Please complete comments in the score room where scoring may continue and you may eat your lunch at the same time.
8. This is an acting competition; tech support, props, and costumes are not to be judged.
9. Judge the acting, not the selection of material.

10. Language is not to be judged. Whether profanity is used or too obviously edited, each school must be free to operate according to its own principles regarding explicit material.

11. Do not permit prompting in any performance.

12. Spectators are permitted to observe.

However, in the event of overcrowding the following guidelines should be followed:

- Only parents, fellow performers, and teachers of the students performing are permitted in the room to observe in the event of overcrowding. For example, if school 1C is performing and the room is crowded, students from other schools (16A, 8C, etc.) are asked to leave the room. Only family members, fellow performers, and teachers of school 1C are permitted to remain in the room.
- NO ONE is permitted to record or videotape the performances. In fact, any observers are to be asked to put phones and other devices away. If they refuse to put their devices away, then they should be asked to leave the room.
- Any questions or concerns should be directed to a board member who can come to the room and resolve the issue. Judges should not engage in conflict with the observers.

13. Do not ask contestants for the names of their schools.

14. A contestant may enter only once in each category.

15. For all categories, except improvisation and pantomime, material must be excerpted from a single play which is professionally published expressly for the stage. It needn't be a complete scene, but it should serve as a complete unit.

16. All students must bring a copy of the script for their entry, indicating authorship and copyright. Failure to do so will result in disqualification. Please do not disqualify anyone on your own. Refer to a board member and he/she will research and make a determination.

“Marvin’s Room” by Scott McPherson

Most of the time I keep to myself. Most of the time I sit in my room. I’ve got a roommate but most of the time he’s got his face to the wall. Most of the time I think about not being there. I think what it would be like to be someone else. Someone I see on the TV or in a magazine, or even walking free on the grounds. They can keep me as long as they want. It’s not like a prison term. I’ve already been there longer than most. A lot of the time I think about getting this house with all this land around it. And I’d get a bunch of dogs, not little ones you might step on but big dogs, like a horse, and I’d let them run wild. They’d never know a leash. And I’d build a go-kart track on my property. Charge people to race around on it. Those places pull in the bucks. I’d be raking it in. And nobody would know where I was. I’d be gone. Most of the time I just want to be someplace else.
